

TIME TO REVISE THE RELIEF

with Kelvin!

1. Complete the sentences with the words from the list:

PLATEAU - MOUNTAIN RANGE - VALLEY - PLAINS - PEAKS

A _____ is a group of mountains. A _____ is the area between two mountains, where a river sometimes flows through. A single mountain is called a _____.

_____ are flat areas, normally close to the sea. In high areas, we can find the _____, which are flat areas like the plains, but at altitude.

2. Use arrows to join the name of the different layers of the Earth with their definition:

LITHOSPHERE

is the gaseous layer that envelops the Earth.

HYDROSPHERE

is the layer that comprises the Earth's surface.

ATMOSPHERE

is the solid, outer layer.

BIOSPHERE

it comprises all the waters on the planet (freshwater and salt water)

3. The Earth consists of 3 layers in its interior. Which are they? Briefly describe each of them: