

The SDGs

On September 25, 2015, world leaders adopted a set of global goals to eradicate poverty, protect the planet and ensure prosperity for all as part of a new sustainable development agenda.

Each goal sets specific targets that must be met over the next 15 years. Everyone—governments, the private sector, civil society and people like you—has to do their part to achieve these goals.

What are the SDGs? Do some research to discover the full list and test your knowledge by completing the exercises below.
